Republic of Texas - Personally appeared before the undersigned Montgomery County Justice of the Peace Henry Walden who after being duly sworn deposes and says that in June one thousand eight hundred & thirty three he went in company with Messrs Cummins Surveyors to survey a track of land for Geo B Taylor the said land lying six or seven miles East of Fanchamps near the residence of Claiborne Garrett that the said Taylor was then living in an house near a small creek, which runs near a small Prairie - that he was left in charge of the horses &c but has every reason to believe it was surveyed - to the best of his knowledge so help
