Lottie Robison Crawley

NORMAN, Okla. — Memorial services for Lottie Robison Crawley, 89, of Norman, Okla., will be 11 a.m. Thursday at the First Presbyterian Church of Norman with Dr. W. Glenn Doak Jr. officiating.

Graveside services will be 3 p.m. Friday at Elmira Chapel Cemetery in Longview with the Rev. Paul B. Cook officiating.

Arrangements are under the direction of Mayes Funeral Directors of Norman.

Friends may call at Mayes Funeral Home until 9 p.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Crawley was born May 11, 1902, in Simsboro, La., the daughter of James A. and Norma Hodge Robison. She graduated from Simsboro High School and received her degree in home economics from Louisiana Tech in 1921. She taught school in Louisiana from 1922 to 1924 and married John Earl Crawley in July 1924. In the late 1930s and early 1940s, Mrs. Crawley was a supervisor in the Homemakers and Nurses Aide Program for the Works Progress Administration in the Longview and Gladewater areas. Following the death of her husband in July 1953, Mrs. Crawley returned to Louisiana Tech for post-graduate studies and became a social worker for the Louisiana Department of Public Welfare in Bossier Parish, La., for many years before her retirement in 1967. Mrs. Crawley was a lifetime member of the Spring Hill School Parent-Teachers Association, a member of the Louisiana Tech Alumni Association and First United Methodist Church of Shreveport, where she lived from 1954 until moving to Norman in December 1990.

She was preceded in death by her parents and by her brothers, Wallace, Howard and Wilfred Robison.

Survivors include son, James B. of Norman; daughters, Mary Ann Convis of Stockton, Calif., and Charlotte Thomas of Houston; 10 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and brother, Ardis Robison of Shreveport.

Memorial contributions may be made to First United Methodist Church of Shreveport, P.O. Drawer 1567, Shreveport, La. 71165-1567 for the Older Adult Ministry or to the Elmira Chapel Cumberland Presbyterian Church Cemetery Fund, 3501 Elmira Dr., Longview 75605.
