Biographical sketch of the ancestor from whom the [illegible] residence in the Republic of Texas (attach photostat or Xerox copy of documents providing such proof). See list of suggested sources in membership brochure, using additional pages if necessary.

See Exhibit A, History of Grimes County p. 369-371.
Generally, however, Anthony Drew Kennard, the youngest son of Michael Kennard Sr. & Johannah Drew, was born July 9, 1788 in Maryland near Havre de Grace. The family moved to Rutherford Co., Tenn. where A. D. Kennard grew to manhood. He married Sarah Moore and they had five sons and one daughter who all married and had families in Texas. The Kennard family started for Texas in 1828, camped on the banks of the Sabine till 1830 and they entered what is now San Augustine Co., remaining till 1832. They reached the land that they lived out their lives on, Christmas Eve, 1832. The Kennard application for a grant of land in Austin's Second Colony was #29. The land was granted by Miguel Arciniega at San Felipe de Austin on November 22, 1832, Anthony Drew Kennard and his sons Michael and William participated in 1835 in the war against the Indians under Capt. Robt. M. Coleman and Col. John J. Moore (Col. Moore is believed to have been the bro. of A.D.K's wife). Anthony Drew Kennard joined the Repub. of Tex. Army on June 30, 1836 as a member of Capt. J.G.W. Pierson's Cavalry Company. His sons Michael, William E. and Mark L. also served during the war with Mexico. Wm. E. was present at the Battle of San Jacinto, and his name appears on the monument. Mark L. was with the army at this time but was sick and did not take part. The state erected a marker at the grave of the Kennards in 1836.

See copy of document attached as Exhibit B, a Mexican Government document for the years 1828 and 1829. Note the affidavit on the fourth page designating the Republic of Texas and later naming Anthony D. Kinnard, bearing the date, July 31, 1838.

See also Comptroller's Military Service Records, Texas State Archives, Texas State Library. Statement of Capt. J.G.W. Pierson that A. K. Kennard joined his company of cavalry on 6-30-1836.
