seventeen in a hunting accident. He farmed until moving to Houston where he worked for Uneeda Stove Works, also Graham's. At his death in 1969, he had retired from Mission Mfg. Co.

My own father, Ivar Thomas, married Dona Mae Rigby of the John Conn Community in 1934. He worked during World War II for a defense plant. After the war, he worked for Magnolia Carton Company for nineteen years and retired in 1971.

At the time of his death September 16, 1981 in Grimes Memorial Hospital in Navasota, Texas he and Mother lived in Madisonville, Texas. Mother retired from S.H. Kress with nineteen years service.

As for my own family, I live in Tomball, Texas and operate my own electrical business. My wife, who was Dorothy Carraway and I have one daughter LaNell Darlene Gardner and a granddaughter Caren Lynn Gardner. We lost our son Ricky Lynn at age seventeen in an auto accident. LaNell works for Champion State Bank of Houston, and Dorothy tries to keep up with us.

OBIE R. THOMAS FAMILY

I am a descendant of James Avery Thomas (1812-1865). He left Marengo County, Alabama with his brothers and sisters to come to Texas, leaving their mother and father, Phebe and John, in Alabama. They arrived in 1835, west of Conroe, in Stephen F. Austin's colony. Friends from Alabama had arrived earlier. Some of the boys served in Sam Houston's Army. David was a delegate to the convention at Washington-on-the-Brazos, and a signer of the Declaration of Independence. James Avery made shoes for the soldiers. He was given a grant of land in present Grimes County at Mustang Prairie in eastern part of the county. He married Amanda Wheeler in 1842. They had eight children: John Henry (1846-1928), Kathyron (1850-1938), Francis Marion (1852-1922), David (1855-1942), Mack (1857-1937), Arch (1860-1945), Sam (1862-1888), and Phoebie, no date. All settled around this part of county, buying land and farming.

Francis Marion, my grandfather, married Susan Mullins. They had eleven children: James Gary, Obie Robert, Huey Edward, Walter, Mammie, Rebecca, Alice, Sallie, Simpson, Susie Cornelia, and Myrtle.

Obie, my father, married Stella Stuart. He bought land and farmed extensively in the county, also ranching in later years. They had four children: Frank, Mattie, Ona, and Geraldine. Frank married Lola Rynal and they had two children: Bill Eugene and Shirley Rae. Mattie married Lester Cleghorn and they had three children: Barbara, Peggy, and Carolyn. Ona married John Franklow and they had one daughter, Judith. Geraldine married Otis Darby and they had one son, Glenn.

STREET THOMPSON OF ANDERSON

Joseph P. Street Thompson 16 Apr 1846-1 Apr 1896 was the son of Alexander Thompson and Dorothy Pryor Womack of St. Helena Parish, La. Street was orphaned at four. He was a student when he enlisted at Camp Moore 29 Sept. 1861 in Co F (St. Helena Rebels), 16th Regt., La. Inf., CSA. His GSA records show his rank — sgt, pay — $17 per mo., complexion — fair, and eyes — dark, when discharged 5 Dec 1862 at Shelbyville, Tenn, "by reason of the conscript act — he being under 18." He then enlisted in Co G, 18th Bat., La. Cav. In March 1864 Texas remained free of Union forces except for the mouth of the Rio Grande. Gen Banks was ordered to "take the high road to Texas" (via the Red River). April 8th at Sabine Cross Roads, 40 miles south of Shreveport, Gen. Dick Taylor's CSA troops, including Street Thompson's company, defeated Gen. Banks and captured his artillery and supply trains. Banks retreated via Alexandria and no other attempts were made to take Texas. May 4th, 1865 Street was surrendered at Citronella, Ala. by Lt. Gen. Dick Taylor, CSA to Maj. Gen Canby, USA. A prisoner of war, he was paroled 12 May 1865 at Gainsville, Ala.

Street married 8 Nov 1866 Rosa Olivia Kemp 11 Aug 1849-9 Jul 1878, daughter of Peter Hutchinson Kemp and Parmelia Womack. In 1876 they settled in Anderson where
