OBIE R. THOMAS FAMILY

I am a descendant of James Avery Thomas (1812-1865). He left Marengo County, Alabama with his brothers and sisters to come to Texas, leaving their mother and father, Phebe and John, in Alabama. They arrived in 1835, west of Conroe, in Stephen F. Austin's colony. Friends from Alabama had arrived earlier. Some of the boys served in Sam Houston's Army. David was a delegate to the convention at Washington-on-the-Brazos, and a signer of the Declaration of Independence. James Avery made shoes for the soldiers. He was given a grant of land in present Grimes County at Mustang Prairie in eastern part of the county. He married Amanda Wheeler in 1842. They had eight children: John Henry (1846-1928), Kathyron (1850-1938), Francis

Francis Marion, my grandfather, married Susan Mullins. They had eleven children: James Gary, Obie Robert, Huey Edward, Walter, Mammie, Rebecca, Alice, Sallie, Simpson, Susie Cornelia, and Myrtle.

Obie, my father, married Stella Stuart. He bought land and farmed extensively in the county, also ranching in later years. They had four children: Frank, Mattie, Ona, and Geraldine. Frank married Lola Rynal and they had two children: Bill Eugene and Shirley Rae. Mattie married Lester Cleghorn and they had three children: Barbara, Peggy, and Carolyn. Ona married John Franklow and they had one daughter, Judith. Geraldine married Otis Darby and they had one son, Glenn.
